WS-04	Chapter Brain Dump	Get every idea out of your head onto the page
WS-05	Writing Habit Tracker	30-day daily accountability tracker
WS-06	Editing Checklist	Review your draft without losing your sauce
WS-07	Pre-Publish Readiness	Everything checked before you hit publish
WS-08	Revenue Goal Planner	Price your book and plan your first $1,000

WS-01 | YOUR STORY INVENTORY

From Chapter 2: "Your message usually hides in three areas: what you've survived, what you've learned, and what you care about. If you can survive it, learn from it, or care deeply about it — you've got an eBook topic."

WHAT HAVE YOU SURVIVED?

List 5 hard things you've been through — struggles, failures, setbacks, seasons that nearly broke you.

WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNED?

List 5 lessons you wish someone had told you earlier — about money, faith, relationships, work, or life.

WHAT DO YOU CARE DEEPLY ABOUT?

List 5 topics you could talk about for an hour without notes — things that make you feel alive or angry or inspired.

YOUR TOP 3 BOOK IDEAS (circle the one that feels most urgent)

From your lists above, what are the 3 strongest book ideas? Which one has you feeling the most pull?

WS-02 | MESSAGE CLARITY DRILL

From Chapter 2: "God didn't give Noah blueprints for a scooter — He gave him the blueprint for an ark, because an ark was needed. Same with you. Your message isn't random; it's assigned."

Who is your reader?

Describe ONE specific person your book is for. Age, situation, what they're struggling with right now.

What is their #1 problem?

What keeps them up at night? What are they Googling at 2am?

What transformation does your book give them?

Before reading your book they feel _____. After reading they feel _____ and can _____.

What makes YOUR version of this message different?

Why does it have to come from YOU specifically? What does your experience add that no one else has?

Pray and commit — write your final book topic here:

"Lord, if this is what You want me to write, confirm it." Then write it as one clear sentence below.

WS-03 | FEAR AUDIT + REFRAME

From Chapter 1: "God isn't asking you to be perfect. He's asking you to be willing. Willing to take the pain, the lessons, the wins, and put them into words. That's ministry. That's purpose. That's obedience."

Name every fear that's been stopping you from writing your book. Then reframe each one with the truth.

MY FEAR	THE TRUTH (reframe it)
Nobody will read it.	One person reading it and changing their life is enough.
I'm not a good writer.	You don't need to be good. You need to be real.

Commitment line — write and sign below:

"I will not let fear silence what God has put in me. I commit to writing my book."

Signature: _____ Date: _____

WS-04 | CHAPTER BRAIN DUMP

From Chapter 4: "Write ugly first. Don't try to be perfect. Get words down, then edit later. Momentum is more important than pressure."

Set a timer for 20 minutes. For each chapter, write every idea, story, quote, or scripture that belongs in it. Don't edit. Just dump.

WS-06 | EDITING CHECKLIST

From Chapter 8: "Editing is like cleaning your room before company. Polish it — without stripping away your personality. Keep your sauce. Polish the plate."

CONTENT PASS — Read for meaning, not grammar

- Every chapter has a clear hook, story, lesson, and action step
- No chapter is missing the faith/scripture connection
- Each chapter flows into the next naturally
- No chapter is longer than 4 pages or shorter than 2
- Every chapter ends with a closing line that makes you want to keep reading

VOICE PASS — Read it out loud

- Sounds like YOU — not a textbook or a sermon
- Short sentences are used for impact
- Slang/cultural references are used sparingly (not every sentence)
- Humor is present in at least 2-3 chapters
- No sentence takes more than 2 reads to understand

GRAMMAR PASS — Run Grammarly, then re-read

- No typos or spelling errors (Grammarly pass done)
- Paragraph breaks every 3-5 sentences
- No run-on sentences longer than 30 words
- Bold or italics used for emphasis sparingly
- Scripture references formatted consistently

FINAL PASS — The God check

- Read the entire book in one sitting
- Every chapter points back to a faith principle
- The book would help at least ONE person you know personally
- You feel proud enough to put your name on it
- You have prayed over the final manuscript

WS-07 | PRE-PUBLISH READINESS CHECKLIST

From Chapter 10: "Publishing an eBook today is easier than convincing Chick-fil-A to add spicy nuggets permanently. Don't wait. Hit publish. Let it fly."
